Hawaiian Japs Offer Service

San Francisco, Aug. 15—Several hundred Japs boarded Hawaii and organized a military unit offering their services to this government.

In district court chambers before Judge C. W. Stanton was heard the objections of mineral owners of the Adams mine at Oreland and the Barrows mine at Barrows to alleged high taxes of 1914 and 1915.

The state was represented by Assistant Attorney General Egbert S. Oakley and County Attorney S. F. Alderman.

Attorneys for the mine property owners were Judge Wm. C. White of Deerwood and Judge Walter F. Wieland of Brainerd.

Witnesses of the state included Rukard Hurd, director of mineral assessments of the State Tax Commission. For the defense were W. A. Barrows, Jr., and Carl Zapffe.

The court took the case under advisement, the attorneys to file written briefs in ten days.

The defense maintained the ore assessment should be based on the market value of the ore, should distinguish the particular kind of ore, less the cost of production, mining and transportation and contended 5 cents a ton was enough. The state's actual valuation was 18 cents a ton, the assessed value being 50 per cent or 9 cents a ton.

The Whitmarsh Mining Co. and Crosby Iron Co. mineral taxation cases following are to be submitted on stipulation. Attorneys for the defendants are Fryberger, Fulton & Spear of Duluth.

In the case of Ellen Christensen vs Nels Christensen, an action to set aside a conveyance, judgment was entered for the defendant.

There was a lull in court work in chambers today. On Thursday Judge Stanton will take up the case of H. K. Dimmick vs Patrick Kealy and others constituting a Cuyuna school board. Following it will be the case of the State ex rel Dimmick vs County Attorney S. F. Alderman, wherein Mr. Dimmick seeks a writ of mandamus to compel the county attorney to prosecute the Cuyuna school board. The case of George A. Beale vs Grove Lake Co. completes the court cases before Judge Stanton.

Session Called to Discuss Present Com-

Washington, Aug. 15.—An emergency war convention of business men of the United States has been called for Atlantic City, Sept. 17 to 21, by the National Chamber of Commerce.

These two subjects will be considered:

First—Ways and means by which business must readily adjust itself to war conditions, including giving up by the "minority" of blood profits.

Second—Preparation for readjustment of business after the war.

"The nation's business today is war," Goodwyn Rhett, president of the chamber, said in issuing the convention call. "Every business man, firm and corporation must now subordinate individual interests to the common cause."

VON MACKENSEN RECEIVES CHECK

Russians and Roumanians Stem
Teutonic Tide.

BERLIN MAKES NO CLAIMS

In Western Moldavia the Roumanians Continue Their Counter Offensive and Succeed in Dislodging Austro-Germans From Two of Their Positions.

London, Aug. 15.—The Russians and Roumanians have checked for the time being the offensive of Field Marshal von Mackensen in the region of Pok-shani, while in Western Moldavia the Roumanians continue successfully their counter offensive.

In the Ona-Grozehti region the Austro-Germans have been dislodged from Slanc, as well as from the heights southwest of Grozehti.

North of Pokshani the Russians and Roumanians beat back several strong attacks by the enemy. Berlin reports continued heavy fighting around Pokshani, claims little advances for the Teutons and says Russo-Roumanian attacks were checked.

No great changes have occurred on the battlefields of Europe. Northeast of Ypres, in Flanders, British troops have forced German posts to retire across the Steenbeke river, which lies east of the Ypres-Thourout railway and in the region of Langemarck.

Field Marshal Haig's men held their gain and re-established their line on the eastern bank of the river.

Elsewhere from the coast to St.
Quentin the artillery firing has increased in some sectors and the British have carried out several successful raids, the most important being in the environs of Lens by the Canadians.

French reconnoitering parties have penetrated the German lines near Rheims in two places. Elsewhere in Champagne, as well as at Cerny, on the Aisne front, and in the Carspach sector the French repulsed German surprise attacks.

SAYS STATEMENT IS FALSE

Daniels Denies Labor Is Blocking Explosion Probe.

Washington, Aug. 15.—A statement was issued from the headquarters of the navy league charging that influence of labor interests was hampering investigation of the fatal black powder magazine explosion at the Mare Island navy yard July 3.

It was followed by a letter from Secretary Daniels to Robert M. Thompson, president of the league, denouncing the statement as false and slanderous and declaring the best service
Mr. Thompson and other active officials of his organization can render the navy is to resign at once.

In its statement the league said it had reliable information that the explosion, which killed five men and injured thirty-one, was set off by a time fuse, giving evidence of a criminal conspiracy.

Green.

Owing to its derivation the word
"green" was originally applied to the color of vegetation, but not to the color of the sea. No application of "green" to the color of the sea is quoted before Chaucer, but as early as the year 700 it was used for vegetation. The word is akin to "grass" and "grow," which verb originally belonged to the vegetable world alone. Vegetables "grew," but animals "waxed." "Green" comes from an Aryan root, "ghraht," meaning to be green or yellow, and "yellow," "zeid"
and "yolk" come from that same root.

THE STORE OF QUALITY$9,000,000,000 FOR WAR EXPENDITURES

Washington, Aug. 15.—Congressional leaders were informed by Secretary McAdoo that it would be necessary for them to authorize at this and the winter session of congress an additional $9,000,000,000 for war expenditures, including further loans to the allies to June 30, 1918. Five billions in bonds already have been authorized and a $2,000,000,000 war tax bill is pending now in the senate.

Within an hour after the secretary had conferred with Representative Kitchen, chairman of the house ways and means committee, plans were under way for raising the money. A meeting of the ways and means committee was called for Aug. 25 and arrangements made for the house, now taking three-day recesses, to resume its regular meetings on Aug. 27 and expedite financial legislation.

DISTINCT GERMAN FLAVOR

British View of Peace Proposals From the Vatican.

London, Aug. 15.—"These so called terms have a distinct German flavor."
This reply was given in an authoritative quarter in London in reply to a question in regard to the Vatican proposals.

The opinion was expressed that the inspiration for the peace move probably emanated from Austria and was in the nature of a trial balloon, as a prelude to more definite propositions from the central powers.

The Vatican proposals of Pope

Benedict was an entire surprise to the British public. Whether or not it was a surprise to the government cannot be learned.
The pope's offer did not even constitute a newspaper sensation. While some afternoon papers gave it their largest headlines others printed it merely as a paragraph among the secondary news items of the day.

If a little cold water is added to

RED CROSS AND DEPENDENTS

The question having been raised as to whether the Red Cross will assist in taking care of dependent families of soldiers and sailors called into service in this war, Mr. Henry P. Davison, Chairman, on behalf of the Red Cross War Council, authorizes the following:

Obviously the task of providing for the financial assistance of the families of our soldiers and sailors is so large that the Government alone can assume it. In no other way can the burden be discharged fairly and as a matter of right rather than charity. No volunteer organization, or organizations, could adequately cope with a duty of such magnitude.

The American people will not, of course, permit families to suffer want because their bread-winners are fighting for their country. Cases will undoubtedly arise wherein the allowance of the Government will not be adequate to protect a family from financial distress. Such instances Red Cross will hope to provide for through its Chapters.

The Red Cross can and will provide also the friendly services which may be needed and acceptable because of ill-health or other misfortune or because of family conditions, which, if neglected, would result in need and suffering or disaster to the home.

That this work may be done with thoroughness and uniformity, the Red Cross has published "The Manual of Home Service" for the guidance of Chapters. This Civilian Relief work is under the direction of W. Frank Persons, Director General of Civilian Relief.

DISPATCH BOYS VISIT CARNIVAL

Ten of Them in Company with Reporter Start the Circuit of the Shows Last Evening

SAW THE WILD ANIMALS FIRST

Dixie Girls, Yankee Doodle Girls, Chas. B. Tripp Who is so Handy With His Feet

Newsboys of the Dispatch in company with the reporter were guests of the Great Clifton-Kelley shows last night. They started at one end of the carnival and attempted to make the whole circuit, but did not quite make all the attractions.

The boys, Carl Schiel, Joe Nolan, Alfred Zahn, Clarence Ahlgrim, Emil Englund, Claire Bedal, Art Weber, Norman Weber, Emil Peterson and Ersel Kohlhaas, were first escorted to Wilson's Trained Wild Animal circus where they saw a good show, Tom Wilmouth and his eight forest bred lions including Duke, the untameable Duke put on a few extra thrills when he picked up a fight with some of his mates and for a time there were visions of flying fur and the little band of ten boys, perched on seats in a direct line with Duke, were ready to go through the roof of the tent.

Nothing happened, however, and Wilmouth quickly subdued Mr. Duke, who gave a few more vicious, thunder-like roars and then retired to his cage. Miss Lillian Aurora gave a fine exhibition with her riding lion and prancing horse, Marguerite with her group of pumas, leopards and jaguars.

Thereafter the Dispatch boys lost their guide and mentor C. B. Felgar in the whirl of the carnival and they steered their own course. They saw the Yankee Doodle girls in their vaudeville entertainment and applauded heartily all the jokes. Front seats were occupied.

From there they made a tack to the Dixie Minstrels. There were songs and dances, some remarkable dancing on roller skates, winding up with a skit.

Charles B. Tripp then halted them and the armless wonder gave a most remarkable exhibition. He is the handiest man with his feet the boys ever saw, writing cards, shaving himself, sawing boards, drilling holes. It was one of the most surprising things in the world to see how ingeniously he used his feet and made them do everything a man's hands would do.

Gregory's Museum of wonders and freaks of nature were examined and made a good show. By that time it was 11 o'clock and the merry go round man started to put up his curtains and the horses went to sleep.

The Dispatch boys went to see Ollie Olson wrestle and box, but it was too late. The Rocky Mountain Cabaret was not seen, nor Sampson the big snake, the Ferris wheel, etc. That will have to over to some other evening.

The boys were well pleased with the courtesy shown them by the great Clifton-Kelley shows and wish to publicly thank them. Each little fellow is a warm friend and booster of the shows.

FOR YOUNG FOLKS

Sleepy Time Story About a Famous Race Between Animals.

SLOW POKE CAME IN AHEAD.

In a Trial of Speed It Is Well to Keep Moving at the Swiftest Rate—How a Smart Little Beast Came to Grief by His Own Carelessness.

Well, said Uncle Ben to Little Ned and Polly Ann, I am going to tell you about

MR. SLOW POKE.

Once Mr. Tortoise, who carries his house on his back and is rather slow, met Mr. Rabbit in the woods.

"Dear me!" exclaimed Mr. Rabbit. "You're mighty slow on your feet, Mr. Tortoise."

Mr. Tortoise poked his little round head up from under his shell and answered, "Perhaps so, but I generally reach the place I start out for."

"Oh, ho!" jeered Mr. Rabbit. "You do, old slow poke? Well, it must take you a good deal of time to get there."

"Well," replied Mr. Tortoise in his slow way, "sometimes I get there faster than some of these very smart people."

"Go 'long!" Mr. Rabbit jeered. "I'll race you."

"Very well," agreed Mr. Tortoise. "Shall we start right now?"

Mr. Rabbit was a little surprised, but he told Mr. Tortoise that if they ran a race there must be a prize. They settled it that whichever won should be treated to a fine dinner. Mr. Rabbit said he would have a nice juicy cabbage, but he liked baby fish out of the brook and juicy worms.

"Very well," agreed Mr. Rabbit. "If you can beat me you may have all you can eat for once."

Then they started off, Mr. Rabbit leaping away ahead on his lively young legs. Presently Mr. Rabbit was out of sight of Mr. Tortoise. "Slow poke," said the rabbit. "I'll curl down and rest till he catches up with me. This is going to be too easy for me."

So Mr. Rabbit rested awhile and, when he saw Mr. Tortoise catching up, leaped ahead. Then he sat down for another rest.

But this time he didn't see Mr. Tortoise coming, for his eyes drooped shut and he was snoring when his rival passed him.

When Mr. Rabbit did awaken and made off for the goal it was only to find Mr. Tortoise sitting there waiting patiently for him.

"I should like to have my dinner now," Mr. Tortoise said.

And maybe Mr. Tortoise just didn't keep Mr. Rabbit busy digging and catching fish. There he was such an appetite as that of a toad. And Mr. Rabbit say "slow poke" again, he

Game of Garibaldi.

In playing this game it must be remembered that Garibaldi does not contain "e's," therefore no word containing the letter "e" must be used in answering the questions asked.

All the players sit in a circle, and the game begins by one asking his left hand neighbor, "What will you give to Garibaldi?" and the answer must be given before the leader finishes waving his hand slowly three times or a forfeit must be paid. Then the one questioned turns to the one next to him on the left and asks him the same question, and so on around the circle. For instance, one would give a gun, one a book, one a sword and belt. This last having an "e" in it, a forfeit must be given.

Iron Is Greatest of All Strength Builders, Says Doctor

A Secret of the Great Endurance and Powers of Athletes

Ordinary Nuxated Iron will Make Delicate, Nervous, Run-down People 100 per cent Stronger in Two Weeks' Time in Many Cases

New York, N. Y.—Most people foolishly seem to think they are going to get renewed health and strength from some stimulating medicine, secret nostrum or narcotic drug, said Dr. E. Sauer, a Boston Physician who has studied widely both in this country and in Great European Medical Institutions when as a matter of fact, real and true strength can only come from the food you eat. But people often fail to get the strength out of their food because they haven't enough iron in their blood to enable it to change food into living matter. From their weakened, nervous condition they know something is wrong but they can't tell what, so they generally commence doctoring for stomach liver or kidney trouble or symptoms of some other ailment caused by lack of iron in the blood. This thing may go on for years, while the patient suffers untold agony. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for three weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while, double their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate or tincture of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete or prize-fighter has won the day simply because they knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the arena, while many another has gone down to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.

NOTE—Nuxated iron recommended above by Dr. E. Sauer, is one of the newer organic iron compounds. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The Manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 100 per cent or over in four weeks' time provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by H. P. Dunn and all other druggists.

THE MARKET CONDITION

A combination of wet weather, interfering with the digging and marketing of potatoes, and a decided increase in the demand, have had the effect of bringing paying prices to producers above a dollar a bushel, during the past few days. In Twin City territory carlot shippers paid $1.20 and $1.25 per bushel on bulk stock, and taking all the goods offered, as quality is running uniformly good.

The demand shown is from sections outside of the state, and from a wide range of territory. The extremely hot weather covered a large part of the country, and burned up the early stock in some sections that had previously figured that they would have sufficient without drawing from other parts of the country. The government is in the market for 2,000,000 pounds for the army, and Minnesota dealers have been asked to bid upon this amount to be delivered at different points as wanted. Up to the present writing no bids have been made out of this section, but it shows to a slight extent the demands that will be made for supplies from now on.

The hot weather also has had the effect of burning up the crop of many vegetables in the northwest, and green and wax beans and cucumbers are already being brought in from other sections. The shortage of many garden crops will cause a heavier demand for all root vegetables, and there is good sale in the cities for beets, carrots and rutabagas at from 65 to 85 cents per bushel to the grower, and at some higher figures to the retailer and consumer.

The prospects are that the Minnesota crop will be marketed at good prices, and producers should see that the root vegetables of the northwest are gathered and stored at the right season, taken care of until they are salable at remunerative prices, and there will be no losses on the 1917 crop.

SPEED UP THE FREIGHT

Closer co-operation than ever before between the public carriers and shippers for the prompt movement of freight cars is urged by the Minnesota Railroad & Warehouse Commission. When the new national army and military supplies begin to move in the fall, with grain, coal and farm products as preferential freight, the ordinary shipper will receive mighty little attention from the railroads, in the opinion of the Commission, and it behooves him to take advantage of every turn to speed the movement of freight.

- Shippers should:
- 1st—Overload cars at least 10% above the marked capacity.
 - 2nd—Refrain from using freight cars for storage or drayage purposes.
 - 3rd—Refrain from taking any advantage of the 48 hours free time allowed by law.

Carriers should:
Move cars as rapidly as billed out and place them for unloading without delay.
Handle promptly all cars delivered for switching in terminal yards.
Keep close check on all cars at blind sidings.

Put everything on wheels into commission.

Commissioner Charles E. Elmquist, who represents the Commission in its relation to the Federal Council of National Defense, states that the Commission has detailed one of its traffic experts to aid the carriers and shippers in handling car troubles, particularly in the terminal yards. This man is well qualified for his task and should be able to perform valuable service for both the shippers and the carriers.

The public should realize that the situation is serious and no effort on the part of either of the parties to speed up industrial traffic will be made in vain.

HELP FOR THE BOYS IN CAMP

If you want to help win the war, you can do it by helping the government keep up the morale—as well as the morale—of the boys in the camps and cantonments scattered all over the country. You can help in furnishing them with reading material as suggested in the appeal printed in this issue.

Give the boys good books in good condition, and write in each volume your name and address, so that each soldier who reads it will know he has a friend in this town.

Do it today!
Give them the latest and best of your magazines and periodicals. It will cheer up the fellow who reads them in camp to know there is somebody back here who is thinking of his needs.

Read the detailed directions and act on them!
Do it today!

STATE TROOPS WILL SOON GO TO FRONT

Washington, Aug. 15.—Plans for sending the first national guard troops to France have been perfected by the war department with the organization of a division which will include troops from twenty-six states and the District of Columbia.

The states from which the national guard troops are to be assembled are: Minnesota, Louisiana, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Alabama, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, South Carolina, California, Missouri, Virginia, North Carolina, Kansas, Texas, Michigan, New Jersey, Tennessee, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Colorado, Oregon. The others come from District of Columbia.

In the artillery brigade will be the First Minnesota field artillery, to be known as the One Hundred Fifty-first artillery. No other Gopher units are included in the division.

The commanding officer of the division will be Brigadier General W. A. Mann of the regular army, now chief of the division of militia affairs of the war department.

Discussion of the time and place of mobilization of the division or of its departure for France are not permissible under the voluntary censorship. The structure of the division as given in the official statement shows it will conform to the reduced trench warfare divisional organization recommended by Major General Pershing, which would give it a total strength, with auxiliary troops, of approximately 20,000 men.

BABY SHORTAGE IS FEARED

Official Declares Draft Causes Many Women to Fear Motherhood.

Washington, Aug. 15.—America's baby crop is threatened by the war. "The threat is genuine," said an official. "The situation is critical and extremely delicate."

Whispers daily come to the government ears from young married men indicating that the attitude of thousands of the nation's young women will make the birth return extremely short so long as the threat of conscription is held over the heads of their husbands.

"These young women are badly frightened," continued the official. "They dread the prospect of being left to face the world with a babe in arms."

Reports show that the fear is not confined to families of men between the draftable ages of twenty-one and thirty-one, but reaches back to married girls of eighteen and forward to married women of thirty-five—whose husbands will be called if the war endures long.

Home-Reading Course For Our Citizen-Soldiers

(Issued by the War Department and all rights to reprint reserved)

This course of thirty daily lessons is offered to the men selected for service in the National Army as a practical help in getting started in the right way. It is informal in tone and does not attempt to give binding rules and directions. These are contained in the various manuals and regulations of the United States Army, to which this Course is merely introductory.

LESSON NO. 3.

NINE SOLDIERLY QUALITIES

(Preceding Lessons: 1. Your Post of Honor; 2. Making Good as a Soldier.)

The three basic qualities, Loyalty, Obedience and Physical Fitness, were treated in the preceding lesson. There is another group of three soldierly qualities that are especially needed during the periods of training, marching and waiting between combats. They are:

- Intelligence,
- Cleanliness,
- Cheerfulness.

Although these qualities are associated chiefly with camp life, they are, of course, scarcely less helpful in all other phases of military service.

Intelligence

Intelligence does not necessarily mean education, but rather quick observation and willingness to learn. There is plenty of need for intelligence in modern warfare. The National Army will be forced to absorb within a few months a training which would ordinarily extend over a period of two or three years. Those who intend to fit themselves for promotion should study thoroughly the manuals and the drill regulations which affect their duties. In time they should learn something about map-making and map-reading, the construction of field entrenchments, training and care of horses, signaling, the handling of complex pieces of machinery, and many other subjects.

Any practical knowledge that you may now possess will surely be useful and helpful to you in the army. Capt. Ian Hay Beth, of the English army, points out that in the first British forces of the present war the previous trade or training of every soldier was sooner or later utilized.

Cleanliness

Cleanliness is important everywhere, but most of all in the army where large bodies of men are brought together. In its true sense, it includes not only keeping your body clean, but also your mind and your actions. Fortunately, it is a virtue in which Americans generally rank high. There should be little difficulty in setting a satisfactory standard in the new army. This is a subject more fully treated later in this course.

Cheerfulness

Cheerfulness is always a prominent trait of good soldiers. Here again Americans may be counted upon to make a splendid showing, even in the face of any unexpected hardships or difficulties that may be ahead of us. There are numerous episodes in American military history to justify this confidence.

In January, 1863, the Union Army lay in camp at Falmouth, Va. About a month before had occurred the disastrous and bloody defeat of Fredericksburg. In the North it was the darkest hour of the war. Everywhere outside the army there was depression and fear. On January 21, the commanding general ordered the troops to break camp and move forward. At the same time "a cold drizzling rain set in; the ground speedily became like a sea of glue; everything upon wheels sunk into the bottomless mud; it took twenty horses to start a single caisson; hundreds of them died in harness; but still the general persisted. But the rain persisted also, and is soon became a simple impossibility to go forward." After two days of effort it was necessary to have the men struggle and flounder "through the wilderness of mud back to their camp."

Picture the situation: Recent defeat with heavy losses; retreat; a cheerless mid-winter camp; rain; cold; mud; discouragement at home; a long march under the most trying conditions ending in a return to the same camping ground from which the troops had started. A little grumbling might reasonably have been expected. But the men of 1863 were too good soldiers to draw long faces. The historian goes on: "The march was made in high good humor, the

NORTHWEST COAL SUPPLY ASSURED

System of Preferential Shipments Is Arranged.

RAILWAYS TO FURNISH CARS

Conference of Officials, Railroad Men and Coal Operators at Washington Works Out Plan to Relieve Scarcity of Fuel in Minnesota and Other Northwestern States.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Plans for relieving the coal shortage in the Northwest by a system of preferential shipments were formed at a conference of officials, railroad men and coal operators, which may ultimately call on President Wilson for executive approval to make them effective.

The plan adopted by unanimous resolution contemplates furnishing bituminous coal operators who can ship to Cleveland and Eastern lake ports 100 per cent car service, with the understanding that they will ship 50 per cent of their output to lake ports for reshipment to Northwestern territory ports.

Daniel C. Willard, chairman of the advisory commission of the Council of National Defense, was delegated, with F. S. Peabody and C. M. Schaeffer as aides, to carry the plan to some authority for final veto or approval.

It is assumed the proposal ultimately will go to President Wilson unless he appoints a preferential shipment board to handle such problems.

Under the plan adopted, Mr. Peabody and other members of the conference said, the entire Northwestern problem will be solved, while other sections of the country probably will be adequately cared for by rail transportation.

STEPS TO CURB THE HIGH PRICE OF COAL

Washington, Aug. 15.—Decisive steps to curb high coal prices are expected from President Wilson and the federal trade commission this week.

Under government assurance that unlimited profits are not to be tolerated working conditions in all industries are improving, the labor department reports.

Until the president authorizes the commission to act with full powers granted under the food bill the government looks with disfavor upon any movement by the state to assume charge of the coal situation.

The national defense council fears if the states mix in the national coal problem it may serve to seriously embarrass the government in its plans for sweeping action.

Justice Carter, "fuel dictator" of Illinois, had planned to arrange an inquiry into coal transportation problems. The operators had agreed to accept Carter's decision on reasonable coal prices. It is understood, however, that the government does not wish Carter to fix any price schedule now. It is pointed out that if the states fix prices and the federal trade commission establishes another price under authority from the president confusion may arise with the coal operators, like the railways, claiming too many bosses.

OPPOSE INSURING SOLDIERS

Risk Men Make Preparations to Fight Administration Bill.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Preparations to fight the administration bill to provide insurance for officers and enlisted men in the military service of the government are being made by insurance companies of the country. The outstanding reasons against the proposed legislation are:

That the rates are too low, compared with the hazards.

That it is a bad business scheme which will entail additional heavy taxes on the people.

That it is a venture by the government into a field of private enterprise not merely as a war measure, but as a substitution for the pension system to be maintained after peace comes.

ALASKA SETS NEW RECORD

Commerce for Last Fiscal Year Totals $115,000,000.

Seattle, Aug. 15.—The commerce of Alaska for the fiscal year ending June 30 set a new record with a total of $115,000,000, according to official figures just compiled. This is an increase of $19,000,000 over the previous year. Vastly increased shipments of copper, as a result of the war, and the exportation of $16,000,000 in gold are largely responsible for the big total.

Three Persons Drowned.

Sturgis, S. D., Aug. 15.—Herman Henderson, twenty-one, Dewey Mlek, nineteen, and Katie Mlek, twelve, were drowned at the government dam in Dead Man's gulch, near here, when Dewey Mlek attempted to save his little sister and Henderson tried to save him.

Do Something Better Than the Other Fellow---and ADVERTISE

Advertising cannot accomplish the impossible any more than barren ground can yield rich crop.

But how advertising does make things hum when the product and proposition are right, the men and methods above board, when there's an honest purpose and earnest effort from bundle boy to general manager to serve efficiency, to deal honestly, to sell good goods, to price fairly.

Oil up the machinery of your business, imbue your organization with the spirit of true service, make your business worthy of the good will, the confidence, the patronage of the people.

In this fertile field then sow the seed of advertising and it will bring forth abundant crops in increased business and augmented prestige.

STREET TRAFFIC LAW STRICTLY ENFORCED

Chief of Police John D. Gile said All had Sufficient Notice, Laws Should be Obeyed

NO MORE KIDS RUNNING CARS

No More Cutting Corners, Turning in Middle of Block, Running without Tail Lights

"Street traffic laws must be obeyed," said John D. Gile, chief of police this morning.

"Everybody has had fair notice. People found speeding, cutting wrong corners, turning cars in the middle of a block, running without two headlights or displaying tail lights, running on the wrong side of a street, parking cars on the wrong side of a street, will be arrested," said Mr. Gile.

"And any kids found running cars will be stopped and parents of such children will be called into court," said the chief. "Children under 16 have no business running cars."

BOOKS FOR.

WAR CAMPS

If you cannot fight at the front, you can send a book to the man you are sending to the front to do your fighting for you. The government has asked the American Library Association to assume responsibility for supplying the camps and cantonments with reading material. Every group of soldiers, small as well as large, is to have books. The Public Library in this city has been asked to get donations of books and magazines. These will be sent to the various camps and cantonments throughout the country and will be made available to the soldiers, either directly, or through such agencies as have facilities for distribution of books.

If you will write in each book your name and address, the soldier who reads it will know that someone in Brainerd is his friend and stands ready to help him.

The following is suggested as to the books and magazines desired:

Poorly printed, uninteresting, obviously out-of-date books, are not worth shipping to the men. Type should be good and clear and the books in fair condition.

Books of good stories will be wanted most, books of adventure, sea stories, detective stories, historical novels and collections of short stories, especially humorous ones. Such authors as Kipling, Doyle, McCutcheon, O'Henry, Stockton, Brindley, Tarkington, Hopkinson Smith, Oppenheim etc., have been found popular authors with men. Good poetry and drama can be utilized.

All the men must be helped by these libraries. Some of them have not established reading habits. Some of the books must therefore be light and easily read.

Foreign language study books, especially French grammar and dictionaries, are much needed—possibly more than any other non-fiction books. In one camp nearly one-fifth of the men are studying French. They should have easy readers and stories besides their text books.

Books of travel, biography and history, especially lives of heroes and travels in the countries at war.

Technical books on aviation, wireless, telegraphy, submarines, automobiles, signaling, first aid and hygiene, drawing and lettering.

Ethical books on patriotism, courage, good citizenship, with simple non-sectarian devotional books.

Fresh, attractive, magazines are also desired—such as American, Century, Harper's, Everybody's, Popular Mechanics, Popular Science Monthly, Scientific American, Saturday Evening Post, etc. None over two years old should be included.

The material is needed at once. Why not select today the books which you are willing to give? Do not give worthless, unattractive books, but some of your good, fresh, interesting, and valuable ones.

Send the books and magazines to the Public Library between the hours of 2 and 6 o'clock Tuesday, Thursday and Saturdays. If you cannot send the books and magazines, notify the librarian either by telephone or mail, and they will be called for. Phone N. 436.

Do it today!

JUVENILE HOLD UP STAGED HERE

Lads of 13 and 15 Hold up Two Little Fellows Aged 12 to 8 Years Near the Depot

CHIEF JOHN GILES GIVES CHASE

Three Shots Required to Bring Young Little to a Halt, Puts up a Fight Then

Brainerd was treated to an exhibition of juvenile violence Tuesday evening near the Northern Pacific depot which reads like a page of Jesse James yellow back literature or several hundred feet of lurid moving picture films.

Albert Fogelstrom age 13 and Paul Little about the same age, held up and took from two brothers, Wilber Clemenger and John Clemenger, age 12 and 8, their pocket book. They went through the little fellows' clothes and finding nothing in the purse, cast it aside.

Chief John D. Gile was notified and he gave chase to Little and Fogelstrom. Clarence Olson helped him catch Fogelstrom.

Little fled down town and three shots in the air were needed to halt him. The last shot of the chief was purposely made low and bounced the gravel in Little's vicinity and he halted in the alley near John Larson's coal sheds.

When the chief came up, Little sprang up where he had slipped and fallen and struck the policeman on the head.

In court this morning Judge Walter F. Wieland, Chief Gile and City Attorney W. H. Crowell concluded to give all a chance to better their ways and redeem themselves. Fogelstrom and Little were placed under probation rules and every night at 8 must be at home in bed or in their yards. No more loitering in the streets for them after 8 in the evening. If found, the old charge against both will be revived and they will be punished with severity.

A. P. Kearney, St. Paul, special agent of the Department of Justice, arrested six slackers on the Cuyana range at Crosby and they were brought to Brainerd this noon in charge of Deputy Sheriff John Byrne and lodged in jail.

They are Nestor Hill, Jelmar Makaela, Nestor Makala, Harnes Vilta, John Hanover and Raino Haaviato. They were brought before U. S. Commissioner W. A. Fleming and Makala, Vilta, Hanover and Haaviato waived examination and were bound over to the federal court at Duluth each under $1,000 bonds.

Hill and Makaela demanded examinations and their cases will come up on Tuesday afternoon, August 21, at 2 o'clock.

Aitkin, Minn., Aug. 15.—Examination of men drafted for the first call for the army took place in the old jail and of the 234 called by the board from which to select 117 to fill the county's quota 188 were examined and 106 passed the physical test.

Owing to the lack of blanks forty-six of the men called were directed to appear for examination later. Sixty-five of those who passed have filed claims for exemption. The first man on the list, No. 258, was Richard Vansteenburg of Boot Lake and he qualified physically. Sheriff I. E. Bockenogian was in charge with Dr. F. E. Murphy as examining physician and Dr. J. NOW AT GREAT LAKES STATION

NOW AT CAMP PAUL JONES

Boys There from Every State in the Union, Every One is Contented and Happy

The Dispatch gives publicity to this letter from a Brainerd boy just entering Uncle Sam's service at the Great Lakes training station.

Great Lakes, Ill., Aug. 12, 1917.

Dear Brother: I promised when I got settled down I would write and tell you of the experience I've had on my journey to the Great Lakes training station. We arrived in Minneapolis Wednesday morning and reported at the recruiting station.

Just before leaving Minneapolis we were given a banquet by the Minneapolis club and the girls of the Red Cross presented each one with a comfort kit. The Minneapolis band and drum corps accompanied us to the station and we were bound for the Great Lakes. A crowd at every station cheered our recruit train, as we passed by. I slept fine on the train that night and we pulled into Milwaukee just in time for breakfast. Here I got my first glimpse of the big Lake Michigan.

Just before entering Great Lakes the engine came through the train and collected all cigarettes and cigarette papers as we are not allowed to smoke cigarettes or drink any intoxicant within the station's iron gates without the penalty of three days on bread and water. We are now in detention camp, Paul Jones, where we will remain for twenty-one days. My first injection of antitoxine was administered yesterday and I'll have two more next week.

There are boys here from every state and city from New Orleans to Brainerd and every one is contented and happy. So far the service is fine, but will be still better when I leave detention, because all we can do now is to take what we get and say nothing.

We have a fine Y. M. C. A. here and it is well attended every night. There is a musical program every evening.

We are welcomed by a cold shower every morning and last night we were initiated by the blanket squad. To make a long story short the Great Lakes is a beautiful place on the shore of Lake Michigan which is 85 miles wide at this point and 34 miles from Chicago.

We are stationed on the outskirts of the village of Waukegan. To avoid mistakes when writing please express my full name and address. I think I will have to "wing off" for this time as we are ready for our second drill.

Sincerely yours,

ERNEST ALBIN JEPSON.

CARNIVAL PEOPLE PLAYING

To Capacity Business Indicates the Interest People of Brainerd are Giving the Attractions

That the Great Chiffon-Kelley shows are meeting with big success was again attested to last night, when a much larger crowd than on Monday evening was in attendance, all of the attractions playing to capacity and giving universal satisfaction. The crowds are orderly in every respect and the show people courteous and respectful, a combination which works to an advantage. The Northeast Brainerd Improvement Association so far are more than satisfied and a big week's business is looked for.

In the write up of yesterday the Human Silb Drome was overlooked. This is without doubt a sensational exhibition of motorcycle riding on a wall straight up and down like the side of a house and any one looking for thrills will sure find them here.

Last night Duke the big lion worked by Tom Wilmoth at the Wilson Trained Wild Animal circus, decided he would shirk on his work and for a time it looked as if a battle royal between Leo, another lion and himself would take place, but Wilmoth succeeded in parting them but only after quite some excitement in the audience. This is a wonderful show.

C. B. Trippe has caught on and his tent is crowded at all times and little wonder as his demonstration is surely wonderful and he is rightly named the Armless marvel.

King, the high diving canine, causes much comment as it seems almost impossible that a dog could be taught to dive from such a height.

This being mid-week a record breaking crowd is looked for tonight.

PHONOGRAPH EXHIBIT NO. 17

State Introduces Victrola as Exhibit in Case Against George A. Elder, Duluth Man

NO RECORDS WERE PLAYED

State Alleged it was Part of Bribe Offered to County Treasurer F. A. Fogarty

In the case of George A. Elder, Duluth bond broker on trial in Crow Wing county on a charge of venue case from Koochiching county wherein the Duluth men are charged with attempting to influence P. H. Fogarty, Koochiching county treasurer, in his official actions, the state is engaged in presenting documentary evidence.

P. H. Fogarty, county treasurer, and E. J. Gjesdahl, deputy county auditor were on the stand identifying Koochiching county records. At various times questions of law arose, the jury was excused and Judge W. S. McClenahan heard the arguments.

The jury sat up when state's exhibit No. 17 came to view. It was a Victrola phonograph which the state alleges was part of a bribe offered by Elder to County Treasurer Fogarty.

It was silent in court. The state claimed it had never been accepted or unboxed and was kept in the basement of the Koochiching court house.

Book after book was gone over by the state covering former bond transactions of Koochiching county to show proceedings covering the $186,000 issue on two ditches and $765,000 bonds on four ditches, leading up to the issuance of certificates of deposit for $500,000.

The Jewish banker and broker of Chicago, mentioned by Assistant Attorney General John A. Palmer in his opening statement, was John Nuyven. The state is presenting its case, the foundation being laid on a mass of records, showing bond transactions alleged to be leading up to the incident when Mr. Elder was charged with offering $50 to Fogarty to influence his official acts.

Koochiching county affairs are fairly unheard of in Crow Wing county and the great majority of Crow Wing county citizens have paid little attention to the arguments and affairs of the northern county, thus making very easy the selection of juries for this and seven other Koochiching cases, civil and criminal, to follow.

WHY KAISER SEEKS PEACE

Fourth Year of War Finds His Enemies Stronger.

Washington, Aug. 15.—A war which Germany expected to finish in six weeks is entering upon its fourth year.

A warfare of submarine frightfulness which was to have brought Great Britain to surrender within ninety days is entering its seventh month without the promised result.

The group fighting Germany has widened into a world circle of seventeen nations, all uniting their resources and power for the destruction of the German military autocracy.

The imperial government which entered the conflict with aims of world dominion now would be satisfied with a restoration of the status before the war.

SALOONS ORDERED CLOSED

Twenty-six in St. Louis Region Cease Business.

St. Louis, Aug. 15.—Twenty-nine saloons in St. Louis county within a five-mile radius of the camp of the First Infantry, Missouri national guard, were ordered closed.

A ruling from Washington is expected as to whether all saloons in St. Louis within half a mile of four military camps within the city limits are to be closed.

What Is a Sapling?

The soldier who thought a "sapling" was a young pig, was evidently a Somersetshire man, for a correspondent writes: "Highly amused, I read aloud your 'sapling' story to friends. When I had finished a Somersetshire woman who was present asked, 'Well, what do you call a sapling?' 'A young tree,' I replied. 'Is it?' she replied. 'Now, I've always heard a young pig called a sapling in Somersetshire.' Further inquiry revealed that others say the same. From which we gather that the soldier came from Somerset, while evidently his officer did not.—London Chronicle.

LITTLE CHANCE OF ACCEPTANCE

Allies May Reject Peace Proposal From Vatican.

OFFER CAUSES NO SURPRISE

Germany and Her Allies Are Expected to Accept Pope's Terms Promptly, but United States and Entente Allies Do Not Appear to View Them Favorably.

Washington, Aug. 15.—Pope Benedict's peace proposals were not unexpected to the United States nor to any of the entente allies.

The possibility of a peace move was discussed with British Foreign Minister Balfour and Vice Premier Viviani when the British and French official missions were in Washington and it was agreed that all the allies, including the United States, should refuse to discuss peace terms while Germany occupies the territories she had taken by force, and thereby avoid what the allied statesmen considered a German trap.

Now the pontiff's proposal presents the question in a somewhat different light, difficult, perhaps, to meet, but it offers to a war weary world a hope for peace. Germany and her allies are expected to accept the pope's proposals promptly.

American officials acknowledge that the Vatican's proffer calls for a reply. Entente diplomats voice a unanimous opinion that it will be rejected.

Cannot Accept Proposals.

American officials realize that a convincing reply is required for the world's page of history. That the proposals cannot be accepted as they stand is certain. That they will not be accepted at all is probable.

An official outline of the pope's communication was received here.

Cabinet members said it was not discussed at the meeting, but some of the president's official family gave signs of the difficulty which it has presented.

The official text has not been received and it has not been established whether it will come through the Spanish ambassador or the Swiss minister. Spain and Switzerland are the only European neutrals having relations with the Vatican.

The first appraisal of the proposal by officials and diplomats was that it was another attempt by Germany, this time working through Austria because of the latter's close relation to the Vatican, to accomplish what she failed in her first offer of peace—the Vatican Acts in Good Faith.

In no other quarter is there any disposition to question in any way the good faith of the Vatican.

But as the unofficial outline disclosed the terms of the pope's proposal officials were astonished to realize its similarity with some of President Wilson's declarations on the subject.

International agreement to enforce peace, reduction of armament and recognition of the national aspirations of the small peoples all were brought forward by the president in his epochal address before congress.

Although the proposal to leave for diplomatic discussion such great questions as Italy Irredentia, a free Poland and Alsace-Lorraine might be rejected on many grounds close observers foresee the possibility of embarrassments in declining to discuss proposals which the president himself brought before the world.

Cleanliness.

Twice or three now have we been reminded that "cleanliness is next to godliness" is from John Wesley and not from the Bible, and every time we row we will not make the mistake again. So to impress it upon our mind we looked it up in Wesley's works. It occurs in his "Several Conversations," addressed mostly to ministers, which we advise ministers to read. The clause in which is the quotation referred to reads "Everywhere recommend decency and cleanliness; cleanliness is next to godliness."—Ohio State Journal.

"LANGLEYS" MAY BRING VICTORY

Many Would Name Our Fighting Airplanes After Inventor.

OUR INVENTIONS IN THE WAR

Submarine Nearly Gave Victory to Germany Before United States Entered, and It Now Seems That the Flying Machine Is Eventually Going to Bring Disaster to the Teutons.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Aug. 15.—[Special.]—Two American inventions will figure more prominently in this great war than almost anything else. One is the submarine and the other the flying machine.

The submarine in the hands of the Germans seemed about to defeat the allies and produced a crisis which took the United States into the war. This American invention has been the greatest weapon the Germans have had.

The flying machine bids fair to be the factor which will end the war. It is the opinion of military experts and many military observers who do not claim to be experts that if the Germans are to be defeated it will be by the use of flying machines. In this connection it will be well to mention that these machines must be largely of American make and operated by Americans.

Call Them "Langleys."

The suggestion that the flying machines used in the war be called "Langleys" meets with favor in Washington, where Professor Langley worked so hard and earnestly to perfect a machine which would fly. Those who know how this celebrated scientist spent his time for years figuring out mechanics, balances, adjustments, air currents, pressure of the air, effect of motion on air, etc., together with all the other features of navigating the air, are aware that he is entitled to much credit.

Ahead of His Time.

It has often been said of Senator Newlands of Nevada that he was from thirty to fifty years ahead of his time with the various projects which he has presented. Sometimes he has been called a "visionary." It has taken him his length of service in the senate, about fifteen years, to get his great waterway project made a part of a bill passing both houses. When this measure is carried out it will be the most stupendous thing the government has ever undertaken. It means the development of all waterways, the storing of water to insure a supply, the irrigation of arid lands and the reclamation of swamp lands.

Only a "visionary" would have founded at such a proposition so long. Only a "visionary" could have secured the powerful support of a president of the United States, which was the essential thing in getting the bill enacted.

People Are For the War.

Although the people of the west voted for peace last fall and elected Wilson on the slogan "he kept us out of war," it is asserted by a man from the west that the people of that region are for the war and will loyally support the government. He says that the people know what we are fighting for and are supporting the president.

Boosting Tom a Bit.

The Official Bulletin is supposed to be without editorial opinion, simply a government news sheet. But when Tom Hefflin stood up so stoutly and earnestly for the administration, denouncing opponents of the war and opponents of conscription as traitors, the reporter of the debates could not refrain from giving Tom a little boost in his prosaic account of the house proceedings. Tom Hefflin is known as the defender of the administration.

Coal Tied Up.

There was a discussion in the senate about high prices of various articles, and references were made to coal. "I will say, so far as the Rocky mountain region is concerned," remarked Senator Shafroth of Colorado, "that we have in Colorado 371,000,000 tons of coal that we cannot touch. Wyoming has 449,000,000 tons which cannot be touched. If we could have a bill passed such as has been agreed upon by the committee on public lands we could obviate the great monopoly that has been created by the withdrawal of these coal lands and get the coal developed."

Was a Real Soldier.

The late John F. Weston, who was buried in Arlington cemetery with all the honors of a major general, was a real soldier. He enlisted in the Fourth Kentucky cavalry on the Union side during the civil war when he was sixteen years old. He received a medal of honor for heroic valor at Resaca. He commanded his regiment when nineteen years old during one of the big battles. He entered a private and came out a captain. After the war he entered the regular service as a lieutenant. He was with Custer for a long time fighting Indians in the famous Seventh cavalry. He became commissary general, but before that was chief commissary with the army in Cuba. After serving for a long time in the commissary department he was made a major general of the line and commanded in the Philippines. He was one of the wittiest men the army ever knew.

The First Woman Suffragist.

A modern historian makes the claim that Ganger Rolf, the mighty viking, who afterward became the first Duke of Normandy and the progenitor of William the Conqueror, was the original woman suffragist and that it was this valiant Norseman who sounded the first clarion call for woman's rights ten centuries ago.

Blissful Occupation.

The little boy had told a little girl that he loved her, and the teacher ordered him to write "I love Bessie" on the blackboard 100 times.

"But that was no punishment," said the teacher later. "He would cheerfully have written it 1,000 times."—Louisville Courier-Journal.
